Topics of Interest to Every Woman

EDITED BY JULIA CHANDLER MANZ

FOR A SUMMER PARTY.

MODERN TIMES TEND TO PROMOTE LOVE MATCHES

In These Days of Woman's Earning Capacity One Has No Excuse to Advance for a Marriage for Which Love is Not the Factor.

you believe that men, as they true?

on't you learn, the longer you live,
t family life, husband, children, and the storm and stress, the happliness
the sorrows shared by the fiveside, the only things that make life worth ving? And—are you satisfied?

there is always the bias of the purely personal; and the personal reason is pretty or certain to be kept under cover during the inquilistics.

N. W.

Bouldy of course, the greatest of all second the inquilistics of under the same time. And some of us believe that in that freedom to wait, for years or forever, as it happens, it is not only woman who has heen the galner, but the institution of marriage as well.

Notions

Intended for Home Life.

If they happen is meet to-morrow, the day after, or never, the fact generally remains pretty much the same—They believe that home, as the Maker or us all evidently intended it to be constituted, is where woman flods her very best happiness, and that where father, mother, and wee ones are guitered in love and contentment, there are found the manifestations of ideals that every normal woman dreams of.

They believe that in the individual ment individual woman sees the embodiment of loyalty and love, and, in a more general way, they know that men ara, as some one put it recently, "a pretty constant, earnest lot, of fellows," quite worthy of all the respect and love that a woman has to give.

And they feel quite sure that the nearest approach to complete satisfaction with life that comes to men and women in this many-sided world is more likely to be fough in the love that radiates throughout the family circle from top-right down than in any other relationship.

Not Satisfied with Makeshifts.

They know all that, know it well; but don't you suppose it is just because they know it so well that they are not satisfied with anythings that falls short of what, in their mind, constitutes the making of that happiness?

As it cooks, pick up the edges with a fork to let the uncooked perition run under and next to the hot pan. Be careful not to cook too long, but just as soon as the eggs seems set, spread and chopped meat on hand over one-half, fold over, and turn on to a warm plate.

Therefore, the dance freck is just as

Hot Weather Dessert.

Therefore, the dance freek is just as sectious a consideration as the smart lines frocks for out-of-door wear.

The range of colorings is greater than ever, and the gradient hues of one particular color provide variety in plenty. It is possible to go through the whole samut of one particular favorite hue and yet have freeks individual enough for a score of feative occasions.

Then, after exhausting the possibilities of a really ineshaustible range, there are all the combinations of color harmonies to be considered. Fruit frappe is a cool and delicious dessert for hot weather. Line a mold with plain vanilla or orange ice cream, fill up the center with sweetened fresh ripe fruit of any variety preferred, either berries or the large fruits cut into small pieces. Bury the mold in ice and salt for an hour, then serve.
